Student Essay:

As a consequence to the sedentary lifestyle followed by people in this modern era, numerous health issues which cannot be resolved with modern medicines have been appeared. Some people opine that alternative medicines like Ayurveda could be useful to resolve the issues. In my opinion, it is worth a try. This essay will further expatiate by belief. Note
This essay will argue that alternative medicine like Ayurveda can help treat and manage certain diseases caused by an unhealthy lifestyle. Moreover these alternative therapies can do a better job than allopathic medicine. This essay will look into how alternative medicines are safe and easily accessible.

To begin with, unlike modern medicine like Alopathy, the alternative medicinal practices have been known for relatively zero side effects. This advantage of Ayurveda and Homeopathy makes it more reliable and acceptable in contrary in contrast to the detrimental side effects of chemical medicines. The natural ingredients and remedies utilised in these medicinal practices could be effectively used For instance, due to the lack of exercise and unhealthy diet etes, hyper tension are popular among elders nowadays. Moreover, alternative medicines have been evolved and practised for centuries now and is still thriving in this modern world, which has proven their significance and worth in medical field. Hence, the treatment methods and ingredients involved are well-known to the humans subsequently making it a safer and trustworthy method of treatment. For example, the components like turmeric, black pepper, ginger are all part of normal human diet, therefore people would be more inclined to follow their trusted medicinal components rather than in-taking unknown chemical compounds. Note

In conclusion, I strongly believe that alternative medicines are worthy of considering while treating the newly found health issues caused due to modern living habits as undoubtedly they cause less consequences to the human body in contrary to English medicines.
