

Writer Submission Guidelines

Alberta Adventist News Quarterly Magazine

Please, email plain text submissions and high-resolution digital photos to aan@albertaadventist.ca.

- Stories must accurately represent your church, school, or other church-related group.
- Submissions should come from either the designated spokesperson for your organization or have permission from the pastor, principal, or leader of the group.
- Include the name and church position (if applicable) of the submission author.
- Do NOT include special formatting.
- Do NOT embed photos into your Word documents but send each one as a separate attached file. Must be at least 300 dpi resolution. The minimum file size is 2 megabytes (Mb). We do not accept photos smaller than the minimum.
- News stories should be brief (about 300-350 words).
- Avoid clichés. ("10 precious souls attended our meeting," "the watery grave of baptism," Reread and then re-reread everything you write, removing every unnecessary word.
- When shortening our denominational name, call us Adventists rather than SDAs.
- Out of respect and love for all our members, please be culturally sensitive.
- Be sure to include the name of the church that hosted the event or sponsored the project.
- Indicate in the subject and body of your email the description of your submission. (i.e., Church name, town/city, people involved)
- Include a descriptive caption with each high-resolution photo.
- Avoid pictures that portray subjects in unflattering poses.
- Be sure to include your contact information (email, daytime phone number) just in case we have questions and need to contact you.

Submission Ideas:

- Stories to encourage church growth that other Alberta churches can try.
- People's conversion stories that focus on relationships. (A photo of the individual or family the story is about with the person who brought them to Christ would be appropriate).
- Stories that illustrate the value of Christian education at all levels
- Stewardship stories that illustrate the blessings that flow from trusting one's entire life to God.
- Stories of extraordinary leadership.

- Stories of how a specific Alberta Adventist church, school, camp, conference, or ministry event, gift, or encounter specifically impacted someone to give their hearts to Christ or make a significant life change for Christ.
- Stories of direct engagement with the local community, other denominations, government leaders, peace officers, business, or other organizational entities.
