

Central California Conference Office of Education

Scholarship Plans School Year 2020-2021

•P.O. Box 770, Clovis, CA 93613 •Phone:559-347-3059 •Fax:559-347-3054

All the applications are available online at <https://cccedu.adventistfaith.org/scholarship-plans>

Central California Conference Scholarships

Full details for eligibility are contained on the individual application forms.

CCC Endowment Fund (Elementary and Secondary Students Only)

- Eligibility—elementary and secondary students only; parents or applicant must hold membership in a CCC church; must demonstrate financial need; maintains an acceptable academic record; parents or sponsoring church member must make a financial commitment to the local school; does not receive tuition assistance as the child of a denominational employee.

Applications—must be submitted online through FACTS. (FACTS is the School Information System used in all but one of our schools. We are using their Financial Aid Assessment Service to determine family financial need. <https://online.factsmgt.com/aid>.)

- Information Needed—You will be required to submit tax forms and necessary supporting documents as well as an active useable email address and phone number.
- Amount— varies depending on number of eligible applicants and their financial needs. This is a needs-based scholarship that also takes into account the cost of living for your area.
- Deadline is June 30, 2020. Students who are new to a school for the 2020-2021 school year and enroll after the June 30 Endowment Fund deadline may apply to FACTS through September 16.

New Member Evangelism Fund (Elementary and Secondary Students Only)

- Eligibility—first-time or recently enrolled students in grades K-12 who have been baptized or at least one parent who was baptized or joined the Adventist church within the last five years may be eligible to apply for a 20% scholarship towards tuition cost the first and second year.
- Applications—available through principals, business managers and pastors. Applications are processed through the CCC Office of Education. This scholarship is for new Adventist families.
- Amount—20% of tuition. Renewable for a 2nd year. (Total of two years scholarship available.
- Deadline—Open Enrollment based on the availability of funds.
- Second Year Renewal Deadline is June 30 of the current school year.

Three-way Matching Fund (Elementary, Secondary and Participating Colleges)

- Eligibility—full-time students enrolled in a CCC Adventist school in grades K-12, PUC, Walla Walla, and Oakwood College. Parents or applicant must hold membership in a CCC church.
- Three-way Match—between the local church, the conference and the school.
- Applications—K-12 applicants must contact their school principal or business manager prior to applying. College applicants must contact their church pastor/treasurer. A church check for up to $300 issued to CCC must be attached to the application before it can be processed by the CCC Office of Education.
- Amount—maximum of $300 from each entity for a total of $900.
- Restrictions—Each school/church has a limited number of applications that may be submitted.
- Deadline is June 30, 2020

Minority Fund

- Eligibility—student/family must be a member(s) of a Hispanic, Asian or African American CCC church.
- Applications—contact your church pastor or treasurer for further information on availability of these funds.
- Process—treasury department will notify the church by letter of the amount available for them to use in awarding assistance.

Conference Faith Advance

- Requests for assistance from the Conference Faith Advance are to be processed through the principal and/or financial office of the school. The local school board is responsible for determining eligibility and the process for obtaining help from this fund. The school submits the names of students they deem eligible for assistance to the Office of Education and the conference issues a check to the school for the total amount requested for students to be applied to their accounts. The amount per school is determined by a formula involving the church membership and Conference Faith Advance offering received by the conference. The amount per student is determined by the school.
- Applications—There is no application. Automatically processed by the school.

Pacific Union Scholarships

Pacific Union Endowment Fund (Secondary and College Students Only)

- Eligibility—full-time students enrolled in a Central California Conference Adventist school in grades 9-12, or at La Sierra University, Loma Linda University, Montemorelos University, Oakwood College, and Pacific Union College; does not receive tuition assistance as the child of a denominational employee.
- Applications—9-12 grade applicants must work with their school principal or business manager prior to applying. Applicants will be selected by the school based on financial need. College applicants should first contact the CCC Office of Education or the college or university. All applications are processed through the CCC Office of Education.
- Amount—varies depending on number of eligible applicants.
- Deadline is June 30, 2020.

Baybarz Fund (Elementary Students Only)

- Eligibility—elementary students enrolled in a CCC Adventist school.
- Applications—are given to students selected by the school and are processed through the CCC Office of Education.
- Grants—two grants per CCC school are given for the year.
- Amount—varies, depending on balance in the fund.
- Deadline is June 30, 2020.