Pastor’s Corner:

A great author once wrote: “There is no reason why we should seek to exalt ourselves, for we are full of weakness. As you realize this, trust in him whose grace is sufficient for you, for “we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.” Therefore, “humble yourself in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up;” for “whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.” Let self and self-interest be lost in the great themes of redemption.” Signs of the Times March 9, 1888, par. 16

Humble doesn’t mean to be debased. As the paragraph above shows us, it means able to be used. Are you ready for God to use you?

Many blessings,
Reese Saxon
