Pastor’s Corner:

In Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus extends a tender invitation: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." This passage echoes the promise of Psalm 69:33, where God assures us that He hears the cries of the needy and does not turn away from His people.

In addition to this, Matthew 25:34-40 illustrates the essence of Christ's compassion and service to others. He identifies with the marginalized and emphasizes the importance of ministering to their needs as if ministering directly to Him.

In the midst of life's weariness and trials, Jesus offers us respite and solace. He beckons us to exchange our heavy burdens for His light yoke, inviting us into a relationship of learning and rest. As we answer His call and embrace His teachings, we discover the joy of serving others with humility and compassion, knowing that in doing so, we serve Christ Himself. Let us find comfort in His promise of rest and find fulfillment in following His example of love and service.

Friends, if you are heavy laden with the cares of life, I invite you to come to Jesus and rest at His feet where He will strengthen and uplift you so that you can become a witness to what He has done for you.

Many Blessings, Pastor Vernon
