Pastor’s Corner

Polar explorer, Robert Falcon Scott, wrote in his last journal entry before his death that he believed the end could not be far off. So, it is with the world today. The decline in morality and standards, the increase in natural disasters worldwide, and the obvious powder keg that is American and worldwide politics look a lot like Matthew chapter 24. Yet in Matthew 25 Jesus reprimands his church for being asleep. Today God calls us to wake up, take note of what is going on, and to prepare for His imminent coming. We need to get back to the Bible and step it up in our prayer life. We need to put away worldly goals and worldly distractions and sharpen our focus on God. Let us listen to the prompting of the Holy Spirit while we still have the opportunity, for we have an enemy who roams the world seeking whom he may devour, and each of us is his target. We cannot stand alone. It is only our relationship with Christ that can bring us through.

My prayer is that each of us examine our heart this morning and ask God as David did to help us correct our flaws, to help us overcome our sins, and lead us in the way everlasting.

Blessings,
Scott

Little Food Pantry: The Pathfinders have worked hard on their woodworking honor by creating three little food pantries to serve our community. One is now up in front of the church on N. 26th street. You can help us keep the little pantry stocked by donating non-perishable food items and hygiene items. Some examples of items we could use are canned goods, foods in plastic jars like peanut butter and jelly, boxed items such as pasta and cereal and hygiene items such as toothbrush/toothpaste, soap, and shampoo/conditioner to fill the pantry. There is a tote located in the foyer to place your donated items.
