Pastor’s Corner:

In Numbers 21:4-9, we encounter a poignant narrative of the Israelites' journey through the wilderness. Frustrated and weary, they grumble against God and Moses, inviting venomous serpents into their midst. Yet, in their despair, God provides a remarkable solution—a bronze serpent lifted high upon a pole. Those who looked upon it were healed from the snakebites.

This passage offers a profound spiritual truth—our ultimate remedy lies in fixing our eyes upon Jesus Christ. Just as the Israelites found healing by looking at the bronze serpent, we find restoration and deliverance by fixing our eyes on Jesus, who was lifted up on the cross for our salvation.

There's a powerful message for the Church. Just as the bronze serpent served as a focal point for healing, we the church, are called to be the beacon of hope and healing in a broken world. We are to lift high the message of Jesus, drawing people's attention to His grace and love, which bring healing and wholeness to all who believe.

As believers, let us emulate the bronze serpent, pointing others to the Savior. In a world filled with pain and suffering, may the Church shine brightly as a symbol of hope and redemption, inviting all to find healing in the arms of Jesus.

Blessings, Pastor Vernon
