Pastor’s Corner:

As we read Romans 15:1-6, it calls us to bear with the weaknesses of those around us and to seek the good of others, reflecting Christ’s selfless love. Paul writes, “We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves” (Romans 15:1, NIV). This scripture reminds us that our strength is not for self-indulgence but for uplifting our fellow brothers and sisters.

In support of this, Galatians 6:2 encourages us, “Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ.” Friends, our call is to create a community where love and support flourish. Ellen White beautifully states, “Christ was treated as we deserve, that we might be treated as He deserves” (Desire of Ages, p. 25). His example compels us to extend grace, just as we have received grace. Furthermore, Romans 15:5-6 encourages unity, praying that “you may be one in mind and voice.”

As we strive for harmony, we reflect the very nature of God, who calls us to be united in purpose. Dear friends, let us commit today to encourage and strengthen one another, embodying the love of Christ in our interactions. In doing so, we glorify God and fulfill His will in our lives.

Many Blessings,
Pastor Vernon
