Pastor’s Corner: Once upon a time, there was a far- away land that was ruled by a vicious king. His iron fist reached into every corner of his subjects’ lives. Every corner, except one. Try as he might, he couldn’t destroy their belief in God. In his frustration, he finally called his advisors together and asked them: “Where can I hide God so that the people will forget about Him?” One suggested hiding God on the dark side of the moon. This idea was hotly debated, but was eventually voted down because the advisors were afraid that scientists would one day figure out a way to travel into space and God would be discovered again. Another suggestion was burying God in the deepest part of the ocean. But there was the same problem with this idea, so it was voted down. Idea after idea was suggested, debated and rejected. Until finally the oldest and wisest advisor had a flash of insight. “I know,” he said, “why don’t we hide God where no one will ever even think to look?” And he explained, “If we hide God in the ordinary events of people’s every-day lives, they’ll never find Him!” And so, it was done. And they say people in that land are still looking for God, even today.” Are you still looking for God, even today? If so, where are you looking?

Blessings,
Pastor Marveen
