

Announcements:

Congregational Singing: There will be congregational singing after the closing prayer for those who desire to resume this part of worship today. We ask those singing to follow CDC guidelines of masking and physical distancing and remain in their seats until the singing begins. Those who are vulnerable or feel uncomfortable with this practice will be given a couple of minutes to quietly exit the church during the postlude and visit in the foyer with overflow in the fellowship hall or outside for physical distancing and safety.

Church Christmas Program: Our church will be holding a special Christmas Program on Sabbath, December 19th. Come and enjoy this special event.

2021 Devotional Books: Remnant Publications is offering a 2021 Companion Devotional Set of books for $34.98. This is the first time these books are published as a devotional set. The names of the books are “The Bridegroom Is Coming”, and “It Is Finished”. Let me know if you would like a set of these books and I’ll order them for you. I’ll have a sign-up sheet in the foyer or contact Janice Wolf at 701-220-3629.

Brentwood Christmas Program: Come enjoy the Christmas Program. It is currently scheduled on Thursday, December 17th at 7:00 pm, here at the Bismarck Church. I will keep you informed if they decide not to have it. No refreshments will be served.

Brentwood School Board Meeting: Meeting is on Monday, December 14th at 6:30 pm.

Pastor Rob's Message

Immanuel. God with us. It was a message of hope given by God to the prophet Isaiah. A son would be born and he would be called Immanuel. Isaiah went on to have a son and he indeed named him Immanuel. The name stood as a meaningful reminder that God was with his people, even in their toughest times.

Before Jesus was born, an angel appeared to his soon-to-be step father and lifts that prophecy out of Isaiah, applying it to Jesus. He will be called "Immanuel". Not literally. He was named Jesus. What the angel was saying was, when people really look at what is happening here, there response will be to realize that God was with us. Our pain mattered to him. We were not abandoned. He was there.

Celebrating the birth of Jesus every year brings us back to this reminder. A promise that in the toughest times, we are not alone. God is with us.
