Dakota Adventist Camp:

From February 1- 15, there will be special pricing available at last year's rates ($185 for cub camps, $225 for junior and teen camps). After the 15th, prices will go up to this year's rates ($200 for cub camps, $275 for junior and teen camps). Please make your members with children aware of this promotion so they can take advantage of the discount. If your church typically sponsors children to camp, we will honor this pricing for churches that register children during this time period as well. If your church plans to sponsor children to camp, please email back and let us know so that we can set up a church code for you. Payment can then be made for the kids via credit card online or directly to the conference office by check.
