Pastor Rob's Message

Mr. Ramos, Miss Rachael, and Mrs. Vandoren. Those are a few of the names that immediately come to mind from a list that is way longer. Those are some of my grade-school teachers. More than that, they were mentors and friends. People who I am still happy to see and wish I could see more often (one of the down-sides to moving and settling so far from home).

That's just grade school. I could go on to academy or college or seminary. All of those places and phases in my life have been shaped and formed by teachers. Many of whom impacted me far beyond teaching a subject. They formed me. They cared for me. They guided me to Jesus.

The opportunity I had to be guided by these people, and ultimately to become the person I am today, was made possible in large part because of my local church. There was never a year in my journey where financial aid was not needed. My local church always stepped up. Offerings and sacrifices were made by people who may never see what came of it.

I want to say something to you, Bismarck SDA Church. On behalf of the students you have, are or will support. Thank you. It means more than you may ever see.

Pastor Rob
