Welcome:

We want to welcome you to the Bismarck Seventh Day Adventist Church. Whether you are a visitor or a long-time member we hope that you experience God's presence as well as warm Christian fellowship today here at church. Have a Happy Sabbath!

Fellowship Meal: You are welcome to the fellowship meal today.

Next Sabbath, August 27, we will be serving a planned meal of baked potato, with a variety of toppings and salads. A clipboard will be passed asking for items to bring for the planned meal.

Pastor’s Corner: Dear Friends, Jesus called us to be fishers of men. In Matthew 28:19 He says, “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.” This is called the great commission that was given to us to share the love of Jesus with the world. Further, to teach the Three Angels Message of Revelation 14, “To fear God and give Him glory for His hour of judgement has come.” Should we neglect the call of Jesus in Matthew 28, we’re also rejecting the responsibility to tell people of the imminent second coming of Jesus and the danger of not being able to make an informed decision to follow Him. However, we need not to fear this call because Jesus began this great commission by saying in verse 18 of Matthew 28, “that all authority has been given to Him” and it concludes in verse 20 that “I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” So, don’t be afraid to fulfill this call because He will be by your side in doing so. On this beautiful Sabbath we will witness the fulfilling of Matthew 28 when 8 souls who made their commitment to Jesus will be baptized. May the Lord lead and guide them and keep them as they start this new journey of faith, and may He give us heavenly wisdom to support them on this path.

Blessings,

Pastor Vernon Herholdt
