Pastor’s Corner:

Romans 12:12 offers a profound blueprint for navigating life's challenges: "Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer." This verse invites us to ground our lives in three essential practices.

1. Rejoice in Hope: Hope is not a passive wish but an active confidence in God’s promises. In every circumstance, allow hope to fuel your joy, knowing that God's plans for you are good and His timing perfect. Ellen White reminds us, “Hope is the anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast” (Ellen G. White, Christ's Object Lessons, p. 158). Let this hope sustain you.
2. Be Patient in Tribulation: Trials are inevitable, but patience transforms them. Instead of being overwhelmed, use tribulations as opportunities for spiritual growth. Patience in suffering builds character and deepens faith, revealing the steadfast love and power of God in your life.
3. Steadfast in Prayer: Prayer is our direct line to God, providing strength and guidance. Being steadfast in prayer means making it a consistent part of your daily routine, seeking God’s wisdom and support. As Ellen White puts it, “Prayer is the key in the hand of faith to unlock heaven’s storehouse” (Ellen G. White, Steps to Christ, p. 98).

Embrace these practices and find strength and peace in every moment.

Many Blessings,
Pastor Vernon
