Pastor’s Corner:

Have you ever heard your name being spoken from the other side of a noisy or crowded room? It's stunning how rapidly you tune in to the conversation as these occurrences instantly awaken a curious urge to listen. In John 10:1-21 Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who knows each of His sheep by name. His purpose in shepherding His flock is to “give them a rich and satisfying life” (John 10:10). When He calls them, they come to Him, trusting that He loves them and will lay down His life to protect them.

There are many influences in this world that pursue your loyalty, but not all of them have your best interests at heart. Jesus’ selfless love motivates Him to provide us with purpose, satisfaction, and peace when we choose to follow Him. As you approach this next week, I challenge you to respond to God’s voice in your life so that you can begin to experience what it means to be a part of His big family.

Please feel free to email, text, or call me if you need anything,
Blessings,

Pastor Kisa de Bruin, M.Div.
