Pastor Rob's Message

Who am I?

What is the first thing that comes to mind when faced with that question? My first name? My last name? My cultural background? My religion? My personality? There are many qualities that contribute to the picture of who I am, but I have only one true identity. I am a child of God. Period. That is who I am.

When the devil attacked Jesus in the wilderness, he came with one single purpose - to erode Jesus' confidence in his identity. "IF you are the son of God..." The specifics of the temptations were not the focus. The real temptation was to cause Jesus to doubt the one thing he had most recently heard his Father say: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased".

Jesus was the son of God. Period. That is who he was. And it is who I am.
