Pastor’s Corner: There are some things we just do without a second thought –things we do just because we know that is what we are supposed to do. What inspires us to do these things? What inspired Saul converted to Paul to do the things he did? Yes, he saw a blinding light and heard a thundering voice instructing him where to go and what to do. Did he question God? No, trembling, he simply asked, “God what wilt thou have me do?” God took a cold callous murderer and changed him into a bold caring preacher who helped change the world for Christ. What was it that made Paul continue preaching the Word despite persecution? Did he continually remember the events of the day on the road to Damascus with fear and trembling? More than that, I believe Paul felt the love of God for him in such a very real way he could do nothing less than give his all to return the love he had been shown. The way Paul chose to reciprocate the love was by continually obeying the call that had been placed on his life. We can do the same as Paul by listening to the call of Jesus as He reminds us in John 15:4 and 5 “Abide in Me, and I in you... for without Me you can do nothing.” Blessings, Pastor Vernon
