Pastor’s Corner:

In the Bible, the word "remember" echoes as a powerful call to recall God's faithfulness, His promises, and our journey with Him. Psalm 77:11-12 says, "I will remember the deeds of the Lord; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago. I will consider all your works and meditate on all your mighty deeds."

Remembering is not merely a mental exercise; it's an act of faith and gratitude. When we remember God's goodness, it strengthens our trust in Him. In Deuteronomy 8:2, Moses reminds the Israelites to remember the Lord's leading in the wilderness, how He humbled them and provided for their every need. Likewise, we are called to remember our own wilderness moments, where God has been faithful despite our doubts and fears.

Jesus, too, instituted the Lord's Supper, instructing His disciples to remember His sacrifice on the cross until His return (Luke 22:19). This act of remembrance keeps us grounded in the truth of salvation and fosters unity among believers.

So, let us heed the Bible's call to remember: to recall God's faithfulness, to reflect on His goodness, and to remain steadfast in our faith journey. For in remembering, we find strength, hope, and renewed assurance of God's unwavering love for us.

Many Blessings,

Pastor Vernon
