Pastor’s Corner: Never Alone: I saw a video clip where a young boy waited on the school bus with his dog by his side. The yellow bus drove up. The dog walked the boy to the bus door. The boy patted the dog on the head to say good-bye. The dog went happily back across the street, head held high, practically leaping, and completely content to wait for his master's return. The dog though appearing to be abandoned and alone but certainly didn't seem lonely. Alone is defined as separated from others. Lonely is defined as a sad feeling of bleakness, or desolation. Lonely doesn't automatically happen when we are by ourselves. Feelings of bleakness and desolation have not occurred when we seem to be abandoned by those around us. It reminds me of Psalm 27:10 “When my father and mother forsake me, then the Lord will take care of me”. Maybe we could learn from the contented dog who appeared to be alone, but not lonely. We too can happily hold our heads high and be content. We can each take comfort in knowing we are never alone or abandoned; God is always with us. He will never abandon us even during those times when feelings of loneliness try to surround us. Be of good cheer because God is with you.

Blessings,

Pastor Vernon
