Pastor’s Corner:

The church of Jesus Christ is a family. Those who have placed their faith in Christ are allowing His spirit to transform them and have been adopted into the family of God, (Ephesians 1:5; Romans 8:15). And, as with any family, there are disagreements. There are personality clashes, differing opinions, and ideas that won’t work together. When each is convinced that his or her way is the only right way, the clash can be permanent; however, differences of opinion do not always produce negative results. Even the apostles had disagreements. In Acts 15:36-41, we read of Paul and Barnabas having such a sharp contention that they split up, chose new ministry partners, and went separate ways. The result was that even more churches were planted, and God’s message was spread to more people. Paul and Barnabas eventually reconciled and continued together to spread the gospel. How do we deal with our clashes? Are you reconciled?

Blessings,

Pastor Marveen
