Pastor’s Corner:

There is a spoken word I love to read and listen to every time this year comes around. It's called The Incarnation by Thomas J Terry. I want to share a part of it with you today.

What good is the Christmas story if it's void of God and His glory? What's the worth of the words 'peace on earth' if it's not rooted in Christ's birth?

What benefit is it for us in discussing the joy of the season unless we fix our hearts and our minds on the reason that Christ has atoned for us? See Christmas is more than just a story of a baby born in a manger. It's more than a poor fiancé engaged to a humble virgin teenager. More than a Magi, more than gold, frankincense, and myrrh. It's more than just a Nativity scene. It was so much more that occurred. It's the coming of the Messiah. The fulfillment of all Old Testament promises.

The prophecy of the suffering Servant and all His accomplishments. The second Person of the Trinity commissioned to abandon His position and set aside the independent exercise of His attributes in full submission.

The Word manifested in the flesh; the fullness of God expressed.

The self-emptying Jesus poured out at the Father's request.

Blessings,

Pastor Marveen
