Pastor’s Corner:

I am a golfer. When I say this, I am not saying I am a good golfer. Let’s be honest, most of us rely on mulligans* (do-overs) to justify the handicaps we boast. Still, I can confidently call myself a golfer because I decided to take part in the sport. After making that decision, I bought some clubs and spent many wonderful mornings practicing my game because I enjoy it. I am a golfer because I decided to golf. Similarly, I have salvation because I decided to believe in Jesus. Often, we get caught up in the complexities of the Christian Walk and forget that our salvation is not dependent on how good we are at “playing the game,” it is determined by your decision to believe and have faith in Jesus.

There is a great deal of joy and fulfillment to be found in following God's commands, but peace and security comes from knowing that you have Christ's gift of salvation because you chose to believe.

Blessings

Pastor Kisa de Bruin
