Ms. Hay and BOB

The students enjoyed a presentation by Ms. Hay last week about emergency preparedness. Ms.

Hay is something of an expert on this topic as it has been a hobby of hers for a number of years. She brought her “Bug-Out-Bag” with her and one by one took out items that vary from absolutely crucial for survival to a few items that just make the “bugging out” a little more comfy and cozy. She likened the BOB concept to our spiritual walks—that we need to be prepared for the spiritual crises that lie ahead of us by being fully equipped with God’s Word and the Holy Spirit. Thank you, Ms. Hay for a very interesting, valuable, and unforgettable message!

3rd Annual I-did-a-read is on

We getting down to the wire on the I-did-a-read! Have your parents record your minutes and bring the sheet back so your dog can advance down the trail. If you haven’t begun yet, then there’s no time like the present! The reading logs must be turned in by February 28.

Angel 37 Dinner

All hands on deck at the Queen of Peace church on 12th Street next Tuesday evening at 5 pm! I would really like for all students grades 3-9 to be there to help. If you need a ride, let Mrs. Wright know! We begin serving at 6 pm and then clean-up begins at 7 pm.

Amen Pantry

We tipped the scales at 62 pounds this trip to Amen. Thanks to those who gave! We would really like to take 100 pounds of donations each time. Please help us! Thank you!
