Next Week—Special Feature

Gem Castor will be here this coming week of a daily meeting with the students. This will be the third year that this world-travelling missionary has come to share his faith and experiences with us. The daily meetings will take place M-Th at 1:00. He will also be speaking at prayer meeting on Wednesday at 6:30 pm and on Sabbath morning for the church service.

Grow a World Changer

On the last day with us at school during week of prayer, Pastor Parks held a special ceremony in which he gave each student a “license” to change the world. Pictured here is one of these.

We want to thank our church family for helping fund such speakers as Pastor Parks. They really do have a positive impact for the kingdom.

Pastor Parks has authored a book entitled, Grow a World

Changer. “God has extraordinary plans for your child. This book takes you on a unforgettable journey into the mind of God. Building on a biblical foundation of Bible greats, this book explores the work of character development and identity formation. Packed with stories and resources, the book bridges theory and practical aspects for helping children recognize their God-given power to effect change in the world.” You may purchase a copy via AdventSource.com or on Amazon.

Messiah Performance

If you enjoy Handel’s Messiah (or perhaps you’ve never experienced it before) you are invited to a performance of it on Sunday, December 9 at 2 pm at the Assumption Abbey in Richardton. Tickets are $10/adult and $5/ children or seniors. For more information call 483-2154 or visit www.dsuarths.com.

Blankets for Babies

Grades 3-8 are going to begin participating in a crocheting project. The project began in June of 2016 when a precious baby named Breelyn died unexpectedly. When the hospital personnel placed the little one in her parents’ arms after she died, she was wrapped in a handmade little blanket. This gesture meant so much to the grieving mother that she began a mission to make blankets for families that face similar situations. She called it, “Breelyn’s Blanket Brigade.” So, we are going to learn to make crochet so we can help with this project. Each student should bring $5-$10 which we will use to buy a crochet hook for each student and a skein of yarn OR you may take your child shopping to get those items. If you do go shopping, please get a crochet hook that is size J. We would like to purchase yarn that is extra soft—like Lion brand Jamie yarn.

Library Corner

On December 2, 1848, a fiery, red-headed Scottish woman was born who would leave her mark on Africa's Calabar region. Daily facing danger within and without, Mary Slessor was determined to make the truth go forward. Would the natives be able to stop her non-traditional practices or would she shine the light of Christ to a people in darkness? Check out your copy now of Mary's heroic story at IHAS library.
