3.23.2019

Long after the death of David's friend, Jonathan, David chose to show the "kindness of God" (II Samuel 9:1-3) to survivors of Jonathan's house. There was no return on David's gesture, and Jonathan never knew the difference. Although David showed kindness in honor of his friend, the recipient of this kindness was Mephibosheth, a crippled man who had no ability to return a favor to David.
