CLASSROOM CORNER-Did You Know? (DYK)

1. DYK according to Adventist Education.com
a. nearly 100% of Adventist teachers are certified while the number of certified teachers in public schools are as low as 59%?
b. the percentage of Adventist school graduates who complete college degrees is 80+%, however the number of public-school graduates who graduate college is 9%?
Adventist Education, the largest Protestant school in the world-second only to the Catholic school system- follows God's Prophet for the last days. Ellen White advised, "To give students a knowledge of books merely is not the purpose of the institution. Such education can be obtained at any college in the land. I was shown that it is Satan's purpose to prevent the attainment of the very objective for which the college was established. Hindered by his devices, its managers reason after the manner of the world and copy its plans and imitate its customs. But in thus doing, they will not meet the mind of the Spirit of God."
