Email Communication: Thank you for checking your email each workday and responding within one business day.

Student Supervision: Careful plans must be made and implemented for adequate supervision at all times. Students must be under supervision from the time teachers receive them at school until the time they are released to parents. The basic rule is that children must be within sight of the teacher or have been given permission to be out of the teacher's presence for a specific and prudent purpose.

School Evaluations: Schools having evaluations this year should be working on the Evaluation Document in preparation for their upcoming date.

Full Evaluations:

Pine Mountain

Cedar Lake

Ionia
