

Message from the Principal

Greetings SVAE family,

Soggy. That is the best way I can describe the last couple weeks around here. The teachers and students miss not being able to spend as much time outside. The younger students had to postpone the pumpkin patch fieldtrip. But, I know the farmers are happy about finally getting the rain. As I spend time in each classroom, I am encouraged at the positive interactions happening in every classroom. Students are learning and seem to be enjoying the process! As always, if there are any questions or concerns, please speak to the teacher involved. Also, my door is always open.

Blessings,

Mr. Hammond
