

Mrs. Kidder's THURSDAY News

1ST AND 2ND GRADE

JANUARY 31, 2025

Dear Parents,

January flew by quickly. We have been reading and acting out parables for worship this month. We have continued to learn the story of Joseph. We are learning about our state of Michigan. Just this week we started our 2nd math book. We had fun sledding this week until the warm weather took our snow away.

READING CALENDAR/READING NIGHT: I am sending home the reading night challenge and a reading calendar for recording minutes. I would like 1st grade to read 240 minutes for the month (it is about 12 minutes a day for 5 days a week) and 2nd grade to read 400 minutes for the month (about 20ish minutes for 5 days a week). For some, this will be very easy, and for some, it will challenge them. I will have a prize for those who reach the goals. There will be prizes at the reading night, as well. See the back of the brochure to see how to earn points. If I just confused you, just ask.

THANKS for KEEPING THESE KIDS READING!!

PLANNING AHEAD: The Lake Union has asked our school to provide a worship for their education board meeting on May 6. Mr. Crawford asked if I'd like to have my class do it. I said that I'd LOVE to do that. So mark your calendar for driving if you'd like to go. We will leave about 9am.

SABBATH CELEBRATION: February 7 – Ireoluwa Adewumi
February 21 – Adelaide Westfall
February 28 – AJ Simmons
