that your donations will be a blessing as families begin to re-establish more permanent housing. We will be working on a plan to match the changing needs of evacuated families with the resources available. We will gladly accept monetary donations and gift cards and will be sure they are distributed to those who need support during this disaster.

A huge thanks to everyone who has given and provided services including clothes, hot meals, places to stay, and RV's to live in! You are proof that we are in this together. We have been so provided for by our Church Family and community that we no longer have the resources to distribute household and clothing items due to this long recovery process. There are still organizations able to take these donations in the Chico area. If you have the means to store appliances, furniture, etc., over the next year, please know
