

The Lord Our God Abounds in Goodness

Psalm 86:15

But You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering and abundant in mercy and truth.

Jonah 4:2

Jonah prayed to the Lord, and said, "Ah, Lord, was not this what I said when I was still in my country? Therefore I fled previously to Tarshish; for I know that You are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, One who relents from doing harm.

1 Timothy 1:14

And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant, with faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.

Psalm 69:16

Hear me, O Lord, for Your lovingkindness is good; turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.

John 4:13, 14

Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.

Romans 5:20-6:2

Where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it.

1 Thessalonians 3:12

And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you.

Jeremiah 31:3

"I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you."

Testimonies to Ministers, p. 15

As enfeebled and defective as it may be, the church is still the only object on earth upon which He bestows His supreme regard.

2 Corinthians 3:5, 6

It is not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, who also made us sufficient as ministers of the new covenant.
