Dear Northwest Christian School Friends and Family,

I have to take this opportunity to extend a deeply sincere and heartfelt thank you to this school community. As you know from last week's publication, my father passed away on March 9 after a weeks-long battle stemming from a fall and a broken back. The love and support that our family has experienced this past week touched my family profoundly and reminded us that earthly loss is temporary. We solicit your continued prayers, especially for my mom, her heart breaks after more than sixty years together with my dad. There is one more spiritual truism that I want to share with our community, and that is that humanity was not created to experience loss. We are not wired for it. The grief and sorrow must always point us to the great hope we have in Jesus and the life we have waiting where there will be no more sorrow, no more tears, no illness, and no death. I look forward to that day with even greater anticipation and hope.

Craig Mattson
