

OFFERING THIS WEEK is for the Local Church Budget

Labor Day Weekend is here—for the United States, Canada, Bermuda, plus Guam and Micronesia—throughout the North American Division.

Ironically, instead of working on Labor Day, most people have a holiday with no work! In other words, many “play” on “Labor Day.”

Does that seem wrong, or is it actually right—in a counter-intuitive way? Is it like:

Laughing so hard that you cry;

Letting something go and then finding it returns to you on its own;

Saying, “It doesn’t matter” when it really matters a lot;

Being groggy because you’ve slept so much;

Teaching people a lesson, but they learn nothing at all;

Hiding something from people so well that you can’t find it yourself;

Getting ahead because you helped so many get ahead of you;

Standing tall before others because you kneel before your Maker;

Giving away what you have and finding you have more than you had at the start.

Those who think Labor Day is for working need a new perspective because it’s the holiday given for the work you’ve already done. When we put it in spiritual terms, it means we give to God and others because we’ve already received so much from both God and others. Our offering today provides the opportunity for you to do it!

~Steve Case

WELCOME

Grace and peace to you. This was the Apostle Paul’s traditional greeting to the churches in God’s Kingdom community—God’s family of grace and peace. Family relationships are important to God and they’re important to us too! We hope and pray that you find grace and peace and family here in our Kingdom community. Please take some time to check out our programs, church school, or a sermon or two. We hope you’ll come back frequently, and we pray that God will richly bless you as you seek to know Him and grow in grace.
