WELCOME

Grace and peace to you. This was the Apostle Paul's traditional greeting to the churches in God's Kingdom community—God's family of grace and peace. Family relationships are important to God and they're important to us too! We hope and pray that you find grace and peace and family here in our Kingdom community. Please take some time to check out our programs, church school, or a sermon or two. We hope you'll come back frequently and we pray that God will richly bless you as you seek to know Him and grow in grace.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Everyone is welcome to join our Prayer Meeting and Kids Prayer Time every Wednesday evenings in Red Deer Seventh-day Adventist Church, starting at 7:00PM. Join us for a time of bible study, fellowship, and prayer.

PLEASE NOTE: Our responsibility for the Soup Kitchen is on the 4th Sabbath of each month from 3:00PM until 6:00PM... and the following Thursday 3:00PM to 6:00PM.

Rides for Walter: There has been some confusion in arranging rides for Walter to come to church each Sabbath. Someone has booked the Handy bus for a few times and without Jane knowing, she has gone to pick him up and he is not there. This is not working. We need to clarify if someone other than sister Jane has arranged for Walter's rides and must let Jane know. Jane Holmes can be reached at 403-877-4943, email: mrswtj2002@gmail.com.

Our new Pastor and his wife, Donovan and Meghann Diminyatz, have just welcomed their third beautiful baby! If you are interested in meeting and supporting their family by sharing a meal (vegan preferred, all flavours enjoyed!), please contact Katelyn Ruiz (587-877-0863). We're looking for at least 6 volunteers and hoping to coordinate meal deliveries beginning September 26. Thank you in advance! Please let me know if you have any questions!

SOUP KITCHEN: This past Wednesday (Sept 21) a couple of us headed to Soup Kitchen to make soup for Sept 24. It came to our attention that the shelves were a little sparse. When I asked the Leader about it she informed me that the pantry at the Food Bank was bare as well. Our Soup Kitchen gets a lot of support from the Red Deer Food Bank but when their shelves are bare it is time for us to look to other options. Here is an option I thought of. For the month of October would you be willing to purchase a large can of diced tomatoes? Once purchased just bring it to church and put it on the Soup Kitchen display table. (I will attempt to get one up very soon). You will probably receive emails and Kingdom Building reminders but that is just because we love you and need your support. Thank you and may God continue to bring us closer together. Wanda Pelletier <wallabie89@gmail.com>

October 15: Praise Concert. Red Deer Church is hosting award-winning Christian musical family, the Springmans. They specialize in praise music for kids, having won "Children's Album of the Year" for their first album, "Happy Beach." They have toured throughout the US, Europe, and Canada. Join us on Sabbath, October 15 as the family leads in our church worship, and don't miss the free concert at 5pm. A freewill offering will be taken to help defer expenses. If you know of a family in search of good music or know someone who might be inspired by kids on fire for God, feel free to use this as an outreach opportunity and invite them to join you at the concert.

October 16th – Open House at Burman University. We would like to invite our church youth to participate and learn about Adventist Education. Please share with your church, mainly our grade 11 and 12 students, so they can take advantage of this special opportunity to learn about Burman University. We thank you in advance for actively helping Burman University reach our youth and if there is anything Burman can assist your ministry with, please let us know. For more info, contact Vinny Menslin, Office: 403.782.3381 ext. 4193 | Cell: 604.459.8175 | Email: viniciusmenslin@burmanu.ca

OFFERING THIS WEEK is for the Local Conference Advance. Nurture Peace

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." John 14:27

We worship God with our resources as a means of nurturing His peace within us. Jesus recognized His disciples' need for peace. Peace, Shalom in Hebrew, conveys the idea of completeness, wholeness, and fulfillment. We usually go to two common sources to quench our thirst for peace: Jesus or the world. They are not the same. The world encourages us to achieve completeness and fulfillment by striving for more material things. This leads both rich and poor to engage in this frenzied race for just a little bit longer. Unfortunately, it's like chasing a mirage or drinking seawater when thirsty. Material possessions are not real solutions to our insecurity, sense of powerlessness, and fear of insignificance. Socrates, the philosopher, while walking through the groaning abundance of the market in Athens, exclaimed to himself, "Who would have thought that there could be so many things that I can do without?" Do we really need more?

In contrast to the race to acquire more, the Bible exhorts the believer to embrace contentment to grow in peace (Phil. 4:11–13; 1 Tim. 6:6–12; 2 Cor. 12:9–10; Rom. 8:28). As Christians, our contentment does not mean that we settle for what is mediocre. We become content when we acknowledge that an all-powerful and loving God is taking care of our needs, both material and spiritual. Ellen G. White recommends how to acknowledge God as Provider: "He asks us to Acknowledge Him as the Giver of all things; and for this reason, He says, Of all your possessions I reserve a tenth for Myself, besides gifts and offerings, which are to be brought into My storehouse" (Counsels on Stewardship, pp. 80–81). Cultivating contentment through giving is a great gain! This week through the practice of tithing and regular offerings, God is giving us another opportunity to nurture our inner peace in a troubled world.

Prayer: Lord, we praise You for being a faithful provider. As we are inclined to forget and become stressed, help us to remember Your goodness by giving back to You and others.
