

OFFERING THIS WEEK is for the Local Conference Advance.

In the parable of the talents, the Bible says, “After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them” (Matt. 25:19). As we remember, two of the three were found faithful and invested their master’s talents; “Well done” was pronounced on them. We remember what was said about the unfaithful one. This idea of settling accounts is similar to the activity of the investigative judgment of our day. In other words, God simply asks His servants, stewards, and managers of His goods an obvious question: How did you do with My stuff? I left you in charge of it. Your life, employment, children, money, everything is in your care. Have you managed them to My glory, or yours?

Good stewards know that they have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous Judge. And they know they are wearing the Judge’s robe of righteousness.

The robe covers us because we give our cares to Him daily. We are not anxious about the judgment, because we know the Judge.

Prayer: Dear God, bless the tithes and offerings we return to you today. We pray that when you come back to take us home, we will hear the words of Jesus: “Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of the Lord.” In Jesus’ name, AMEN!

WELCOME

Grace and peace to you. This was the Apostle Paul’s traditional greeting to the churches in God’s Kingdom community—God’s family of grace and peace. Family relationships are important to God and they’re important to us too! We hope and pray that you find grace and peace and family here in our Kingdom community. Please take some time to check out our programs, church school, or a sermon or two. We hope you’ll come back frequently, and we pray that God will richly bless you as you seek to know Him and grow in grace.

Scripture Reading Today

Matthew 19:26

But Jesus beheld their thoughts, and said unto them, with men this is impossible; but if they will forsake all things for my sake, with God whatsoever things I speak are possible.
