"Beneath a sky of radiant light, a child was born that Holy night. In Bethlehem, a humble place, God's love revealed, a gift of grace. The shepherds heard the angels sing, proclaiming peace, the newborn King. They sought the babe in manger low, their hearts aglow and their faith aglow. From distant lands, the wise men came, led by a star and Jesus' name. With gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh, they knelt in awe, their hearts astir. Today, we too must seek His face, to find in Him our resting place. No gold or treasures must we impart, but give Him all - our willing heart." - Author Unknown
