My personal application for today is:

1. _____ about Christ.
2. _____ to His Word.
3. _____ your conscience.

Read Mark 6:14-29 in your Bible.

People heard about Jesus and thought He could even be John the Baptist!
Do you think Herod was feeling guilty and a little fearful about something that he had done?

King Herod's Foolish Promise

King Herod heard of the wonderful things Jesus was doing.

King Herod's Foolish Promise

King Herod liked John the Baptist. But when John said something the king didn't want to hear, Herod put John in prison.

Trace the path to the prison.

START

King Herod gave a great party on his birthday.

But during the party,
he made a foolish promise.

Circle these things in the picture:
